Public Duty Equalities Statement September 2024- 2025

Holy Cross School is guided by a clear set of objectives and values, one of which is equality. We are committed to eliminating unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation; advance equality of opportunity; and foster good relations between different groups within the local community. We are determined to do everything we can to make sure that people are treated fairly and that everyone has access to good quality services.

In accordance with our Mission statement, school values and Catholic ethos, we pledge to respect the equal human rights of our pupils, staff and other members of the school community, and to educate them about equality, diversity and cohesion.

We aim to be a close school community where everyone is treated fairly and with respect. We want everyone to reach their potential, and recognise that for some pupils extra support is needed to help them to achieve and be successful.

We are required to publish equality information as well as equality objectives, which show how we plan to reduce or remove particular inequalities or disadvantages. This information is reviewed and updated annually.

This duty has three elements. In carrying out their functions public bodies are required to have 'due regard' when making decisions and developing policies, to the need to:

1. Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimization and other conduct that is prohibited by the Equality Act 2010.
2. Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.
3. Foster good relations across all protected characteristics – between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

We welcome our general duty under the Equality Act 2010 to eliminate discrimination, to advance equality of opportunity and to foster good relations, and our specific duties to publish information every year about our school population; to explain how we have due regard for equality; and to publish equality objectives which show how we plan to tackle particular inequalities, and reduce or remove them.

The equality duty supports good education and improves pupil outcomes. It helps us as a school to identify priorities such as underperformance, poor progression, and bullying. It does this by requiring us to collate evidence, take a look at the issues and consider taking action to improve the experience of different groups of pupils. It then helps us to focus on what can be done to tackle these issues and to improve outcomes by developing measurable equality objectives.

We shall achieve this through:

- Implementing required policies and procedures
- With a renewed focus on our curriculum and the teaching of the protected characteristics
- Regularly reviewing of school documentation
- Ensuring appropriate training for all our staff
- School assemblies and special events
- Through display in the school
- Our communications, website and publications
- Our ethos and values
- Our daily interactions with parents and other visitors
- Appropriate oversight by school leaders and Governors
- Our identified school objectives.
- By reviewing our responsibilities as governors

- By seeking appropriate external support and advice

We shall continue to monitor and review our responsibilities in meeting our duty under the 2010 Equalities Act.

Together with Jesus as our role model, we are a happy, nurturing, welcoming community. All are dedicated to supporting, valuing and encouraging each other.

We love one another as Jesus taught us.
